State Budget Cuts

Are Devastating California Public Schools and Colleges

IN CALIFORNIA
$17 BILLION	More than $17 billion has been cut from California public schools and colleges in the last two years. And now in his 2010-2011 budget plan the governor wants to cut another $2.5 billion and renege on last year's budget agreement to pay schools the $11.2 billion they are owed.
60% OF CUTS	K-12 schools have suffered 60% of the state budget cuts—hurting an entire generation of children.
46th	California ranks 46th nationally in per-pupil funding.
IN COLTON
100%	Despite major cutbacks, every school in the district showed growth on the state test.
46	Teachers not replaced last year.
100%	Colton educators are working with fewer resources and colleagues to try to educate your children.
141	Layoffs for next year already approved by the school board.

You can help restore funding to public education.
Call 1-888-268-4334 and tell your legislator to stop the cuts to public education.
